I ("Participant") understand and agree as a condition of acceptance of my reservation as a participant in this tour and any pre- or post-tour extensions, that I hereby agree to the limitation of liability of Nomadic Expeditions, Inc. ("NE") and the assumption of the risks of travel and release of NE from liability and the other terms and conditions hereinafter set forth:

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

I understand and agree that NE, a corporation of the State of New Jersey, acts only in the capacity of an agent in making arrangements for transportation, hotels, and other services included in this tour and does not assume any responsibility or liability for any injury, damage, illness, death, loss, accident, delay, expense or other irregularity to the Participant due to any act of or default or negligence or failure to act by any carrier, hotel, restaurant, company or person rendering any of the services included in this tour, or any of their employees or agents, which may arise including, but not limited to, any breakdown of machinery or equipment, improper visas, health certificates or documents or acts of any governmental authority or caused by strike, civil disturbances, sicknesses, quarantine, weather, natural disaster, hostility or acts of war or other force majeure. NE does not assume nor shall it have any responsibility or liability for any injury, damage, illness, death, loss, accident, delay, expense, or other irregularity to the Participant due to any of the risks associated with travel in and to lesser developed nations including, but not limited to, breakdown of machinery or equipment, improper visas, health certificates or documents or acts of any governmental authority or caused by strike, civil disturbances, sicknesses, quarantine, weather, natural disaster, hostility, acts of war, itinerary and routing changes, changes in modes of ground and air travel, changes in quality of accommodations and other program changes, and the risks and dangers associated with travel in general and specifically with adventure travel and physical activities including, but not limited to, mountain climbing, horse riding, kayaking, canoeing, rafting, camel trekking, and hiking/trekking. Any additional charges arising from the delay or extension of this tour or arising from any of the previously described acts or events will be the Participant's responsibility. NE reserves the right to decline to accept any person as a Participant in the tour or to refuse to retain any Participant in the tour and shall have the right to remove any Participant during the tour at such Participant's expense. NE reserves the right to adjust the itinerary of changes in the modes of ground and air travel, changes in the quality of accommodations or hotels or changes in the tour without prior notice. The airlines and public transportation companies shall not have any liability or responsibility for any act, omission, or event during the time the passenger is not aboard their aircraft or public conveyances. The passenger contract in use by said airline and/or public carrier shall be the sole contract between said carrier and passenger.

ASSUMPTION OF THE RISKS OF TRAVEL AND RELEASE FROM LIABILITY

I further understand that I am undertaking travel to lesser developed countries by the standards usually associated with industrial nations, and in addition to the rewards associated with travel to these exotic destinations there are certain inherent problems that I may encounter which are due to circumstances and situations associated with such travel. I understand that among the problems I may encounter are the risks associated with travel in and to lesser developed nations including, but not limited to, breakdown of machinery or equipment, improper visas, health certificates or documents or acts of any governmental authority or caused by strike, civil disturbances, sicknesses, quarantine, weather, natural disaster, hostility, acts of war, itinerary and routing changes, changes in modes of ground and air travel, changes in quality of accommodations and other program changes, and the risks and dangers associated with travel in general and specifically with adventure travel and physical activities including, but not limited to, mountain climbing, horse riding, kayaking, canoeing, rafting, camel trekking and hiking/trekking, delays, last minute itinerary and routing changes, changes in modes of ground and air travel, changes in the quality of accommodations, and other services and program changes all of which I assume and release NE from any and all liability for any injury, damage, death, loss, accident, delay, expenses or other irregularities arising therefrom. In the event any of these situations arise, NE will attempt in good faith subject to sound business judgment to make all reasonable and necessary changes to the extent possible in my itinerary to adapt to the circumstances and to comply to the extent reasonably possible to the published itinerary.

I further agree to assume and release NE from any responsibility or liability for any injury, damage, illness, death, loss, accident, delay, expense or other irregularity to the Participant due to any act of or default or negligence or failure to act by any carrier, hotel, restaurant, company or person rendering any of the services included in this tour, or any of their employees or agents, which may arise including, but not limited to, any breakdown of machinery or equipment, improper visas, health certificates or documents or acts of any governmental authority or caused by strike, civil disturbances, sicknesses, quarantine, weather, natural disaster, hostility, acts of war, or any other acts beyond their control.

I understand that all rates for transportation, hotels and other services are based on tariffs and exchange rates in effect at the time of the printing of the price list for said tour are subject to increase without prior notification in the event of changes therein. I further understand that all trip applications are subject to acceptance by NE.

There are certain risks and dangers associated with travel in general, and specifically with adventure travel and physical activities including (but not limited to) mountain climbing, horse riding, kayaking/canoeing/rafting, camel trekking and hiking/trekking. By participating in Nomadic Expeditions trips and programs, you will be assuming those risks. As such, you will be required to sign a release of liability before undertaking any activity with NE. NE is not responsible for lost or damaged personal property or for any injuries you may sustain on the trip. If you have any questions, please call us concerning the risks involved with the activities on any particular trip.

Itineraries and arrangements are subject to change without notice. NE will attempt to provide advanced notice of any changes to itinerary or services to the extent possible. NE reserves the right to adjust itineraries as deemed necessary, or to postpone or substitute itineraries or services, if travel conditions may jeopardize the health and/or safety of the travelers, or prevent the itinerary from operating as scheduled. Any additional charges incurred arising from the postponement, delay or extension of a trip or adjustment to the itinerary due to weather, equipment failure, flight schedule changes, illness, or other causes beyond our control will be the traveler's responsibility.

Participants understand that NE, Inc. reserves the right to take photographs and/or digital or video film of any of their trips or participants and participants agree that NE, Inc. may use these images for promotional and/or commercial purposes.

I confirm that I have read carefully the detailed itinerary for the NE trip that I have selected as well as the conditions of the application and participation set forth in this document and under the general terms and conditions section of NE's 2010 Departure Guide, including the cancellation and refund policies.

I agree to pay NE the full cost of all services rendered prior to and during the course of my travels, including necessary adjustments in trip costs, tier price, single supplement fees, late payment fees, returned check fees, and any and all additional products and services provided, whether requested by me or deemed necessary by NE.

I understand that baggage is carried at the owner's risk throughout the trip and NE is not liable for any damage to or loss of baggage either in transit to or during a NE trip. I also understand that NE is not responsible for purchases made during any trip including but not limited to defective goods, shipping problems, and/or confiscation by customs.

I have reviewed the detailed itinerary and this form with my physician. I will not hold NE, its employees and agents responsible for any expenses/losses incurred resulting from any delay, changes in itinerary or cancellation of this trip, accident, sickness, or lost or damaged baggage. I further understand that it is entirely my responsibility to determine, in conjunction with my physician, that I am physically capable to undertake the trip which I have selected and that NE assumes no liability or responsibility in determining my ability to join the trip.

All of the information set forth above is correct.

I hereby agree to be bound by those terms and conditions without reservation including the limitation of liability of Nomadic and assumption of risks of travel and release of Nomadic from liability by myself, my dependents, heirs, assigns, executors, administrators and legal representatives.
